Title or Position Available: Practice For Sale (ASAP/Good deal, Looking to retire)

Job Description or practice description: Acupuncture clinic for sale (many patients lined up, available to start immediately, $90k-$150k yearly profit). We are getting old and want to retire immediately, so are willing to negotiate a very fair deal.

Established in 1994, we have grown a large and loyal client base all through word of mouth and referrals from the results of their treatments. We have 5 treatment rooms at our location and have newly renovated it ourselves, giving us an exclusive rent deal as well ($1030, including all utilities + free parking lot).

After running this clinic for 30 years, we want to settle down and retire, so we are willing to let our business go at a deeply discounted price. We already have had to turn down patients due to wanting to slow down and retire, and would like to sell our business as soon as possible.

Included in the sale is everything, such as the following (but not limited to)

- All current patients with existing medical files
- Branding: name, logo
- Chinese herb pharmacy
- Office furniture, acupuncture equipment, and supplies
- And more, contact for more details.
