Job Description or practice description: Our mission is to help heal our patients, our communities, and ourselves through the work we perform at our clinic and in our local community. Our goal is to treat each other and every patient with the respect and care they deserve. We believe our patients' care is of great importance, and we provide our patients with the best quality of care either through our services or by referring them to other health care professionals depending on their specific needs.

Responsibilities include:

- First-time evaluations
- Establishing treatment plans and collaborating with a team.
- Accurate record-keeping.
- Actively promote the clinic, treatments and/or promotions.
- Assist in marketing and some clinic operations.

We are looking for someone who is:

- Confident, empathetic and positive

Experienced or interested in energy healing

- Flexible with scheduling, supporting the needs of the clinic.
- Understands how to operate office equipment, computers, online scheduling, phones, etc.
- Excellent time management.

We encourage current students, recent grads and experienced practitioners to apply. We will help you get through the Georgia licensing process.

We are seeking to handle the overflow of patients in our practice. You will have access to a treatment room, fully furnished, five days a week but can work as little as 3 days according to your own schedule. You will bill independently and determine your own pricing. Everything you need is here, you can just walk-in and begin work. You would pay us for use of space in our office and receive referrals to fill your practice. Visionary Healing is an established practice with a 6 week wait list for new clients. We have extra treatment rooms in our beautiful space. We seek a positive, energetic and experienced practitioner who wants to work in Atlanta and receive a steady stream of clients. Fee for use of space is $900 per month for 2 days a week. If you are the right fit, we can negotiate use of space fee.

Date needed: Now

Note: Interested People should email us after reviewing our website. Your Email should include a resume, a reference letter and an introduction letter so we can learn a little about you. After review, we will set-up a meeting by Zoom or in-person. www.visionaryhealing.org
